

How can you access cloud services under OCRE with SoftwareOne?

Introduction

OCRE is a program that helps educational and research institutions across Europe easily access cloud services. It provides a common framework agreement that makes buying and implementing cloud solutions straightforward and tailored to the needs of education and research organisations.

Through the OCRE framework, SoftwareOne helps institutions adopt secure, scalable, and affordable cloud solutions from major providers like AWS, Microsoft Azure, and Google Cloud. The framework simplifies the purchasing process with standardised contracts, making it easier and safer for institutions to obtain cloud solutions and professional services.

Our expert guidance helps institutions quickly deploy cloud services, improving learner outcomes, enhancing academic collaboration, and accelerating groundbreaking research.

Key benefits of the OCRE Framework

Reduce costs and gain easier access to funding through OCRE.

Improve collaboration and enhance security for cloud-based research projects.

Streamlined cloud purchasing for research and education institutions.

Ensure compliance with EU and institutional policies and regulations.
